Doctor of Nursing Practice-Master’s in Public Health Joint Degree

Designed for APNs interested in doctoral nursing education with an emphasis in public health

- Didactic course work in both programs
- Public health practicum
- Scholarly DNP project/MPH thesis or project
MPH Tracks

• Epidemiology
• Global Health
• Health Policy

• Combined program = 55-58 credits
  – MPH alone = 42 credits
  – DNP alone = 35 credits
Curriculum

• Minimum of 10 DNP credits will be met by MPH courses
  – Biostatistics (3)
  – Epidemiology (3)
  – Electives (4)

• Organization and Systems course may be DNP or MPH

• DNP Integrative courses to complete DNP project and MPH thesis/project
Individualized Plan of Study

• Year 1: MPH (on campus)
  – MPH practicum in summer
    • Local or international

• Year 2: DNP
  – Completion of MPH practicum if needed

• Year 3: Remaining course requirements
  – DNP scholarly project
  – MPH project or thesis