During Colleen Conway-Welch’s 25th year as dean, Vanderbilt Nurse shares some key numbers that reflect how the school has grown and continues to prosper under her leadership.

4,851 students have been pinned

$40,460,450 donated to the School by generous supporters who believe nurses are the cornerstone of health care

31 pinning ceremonies she has presided over

$66,083,016 in grants have been raised for VUSN research, renovation and initiatives

$33,922,897 in scholarships have gone to offset tuition costs for more than 88 percent of our students

1,859 number of students who have joined Sigma Theta Tau

3 number of honorary degrees she has been awarded

18 number of different countries represented among VUSN students/graduates